0.0	Lead. Interviewer -- A. Kingsnorth. Language -- English. Setting -- subject's home. Interruptions -- minimal, occasional background sounds, including chimes of elegant grandfather clock.
Nature of French Community in Sacto.	Is there a French community in Sacramento? French are not joiners. Problematic for the local clubs; Causeries françaises includes a large number of francophile, non-French members. Large number of French women in the area married to military males, who do not join the club, despite their stated desire to speak French.	*
3½	L'Union gauloise does succeed in enlisting males to play boules and cards.
4½	French are not numerous in Sacramento Classifies local French people into two categories: highly educated, research oriented and the true immigrant seeking upward mobility.	*
Americanization 6.0	Discusses Americanization, loss of French enculturation in some long term residents.
Second Generation 7.0	Second generation. Frequently acquire an interest in French culture in their teens. Not a cohesive group. C.f. not successful at incorporating the second generation.	*

S.F.	25.0	Relationship to San Francisco community Bastille Day. Basques.
Lack of local Newspaper	27.½	Lack of French newspaper locally. Mention San Francisco paper serves the local community. (Interviewer comment; this is Journal Francais d'Amerique, which to the interviewer's knowledge is read by non-participants in the local community as well. The subject mentions a New York paper that deals with Franco-American issues and the local club newsletters. The latter are very literally one page personalized letters produced irregularly four to six times annually containing reminders of an up-coming event, a thank you to the hostess or arranger of a previous event and condolences or obituaries.)
Non-joiners	28½	French non-joiners. Moliere play with approx. two hundred in attendance, but never seen again. "Ships passing in the night".	*
